Title.

AN ACT to impose Duties of Customs and Excise, and to amend the Customs Acts. [4th October, 1934.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Customs Acts Amendment Act, 1934.

PART I.

CUSTOMS DUTIES.

2. This Part of this Act shall be read together with and deemed part of the Customs Act, 1913 (hereinafter in this Part referred to as the principal Act).

3. (1) In the Customs Acts, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“British dominions” includes British protectorates and any territory for the time being subject to a mandate conferred on His Majesty by the League of Nations:

This Part to be read with Customs Act, 1913.

See Reprint of Statutes, Vol. VII, p. 97

Interpretation.

“British Preferential Tariff” means the rates of duties and the exemptions from duty set forth in the column numbered one in the First Schedule hereto, and includes any modification or amendment thereof that may hereafter be made:

“General Tariff” means the rates of duties and the exemptions from duty set forth in the column numbered two in the First Schedule hereto, and includes any modification or amendment thereof that may hereafter be made:

“Tariff items” means the Tariff items as appearing in the First Schedule to this Act, or in any modification or amendment thereof that may hereafter be made.

(2) Where in any Act in force on the commencement of this Act reference is made to any specified Tariff item such reference shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be deemed to be a reference to the corresponding Tariff item appearing in the First Schedule to this Act.

4. All duties of Customs and all exemptions from such duties imposed or allowed under the several enactments or other authorities enumerated in the Second Schedule hereto are hereby abolished.

Abolition of existing duties.

5. Upon the coming into operation of this Act and thereafter while this section remains in force, but subject to any special provisions of the Customs Acts,—

Application of British Preferential and General Tariffs.

(a) There shall be levied, collected, and paid on all goods being the produce or manufacture of some part of the British dominions and imported into New Zealand or entered therein for home consumption after the commencement of this Act the rates of Customs duties (if any) set forth in the British Preferential Tariff; and

(b) There shall be levied, collected, and paid on all goods being the produce or manufacture of a country not being part of the British dominions and imported into New Zealand or entered therein for home consumption after the commencement of this Act the rates of Customs duties (if any) set forth in the General Tariff.

Saving of existing trade agreements.

6. (1) Nothing in the last preceding section shall affect the Trade Agreement (New Zealand and Canada) Ratification Act, 1932, the Trade Agreement (New Zealand and Australia) Ratification Act, 1933, or the Trade Arrangement (New Zealand and Belgium) Ratification Act, 1933, except so far as the rates of duty under the General Tariff in respect of any goods have been prescribed by any of those Acts.

(2) Nothing in the last preceding section shall be so construed or shall so operate as to conflict with the schedule of Customs duties and exemptions contained in an Order in Council made under the authority of the Customs Amendment Act, 1921, on the seventh day of September, nineteen hundred and twenty-five, and published in the Gazette of the tenth day of the same month (fixing rates of duty and exemptions from duty in respect of certain goods being the produce or manufacture of the Union of South Africa):

Provided that while such Order in Council remains in force no higher duty shall be levied on any such goods than would be levied if the goods were subject to the British Preferential Tariff:

Provided also that, notwithstanding the provisions of the said Order in Council, duty shall be levied, collected, and paid at the rates set out in the column numbered one in the First Schedule hereto upon goods being the produce or manufacture of the Union of South Africa and included in Tariff items numbered sixty-nine and seventy.

7. (1) Notwithstanding anything in section five or section six of this Act or elsewhere in the Customs Acts, the duty (if any) payable under the General Tariff shall be paid on all goods imported into New Zealand or entered therein for home consumption unless the following provisions of this section are complied with.

(2) Where it is claimed in respect of any goods that they are entitled to be entered under the British Preferential Tariff they shall not be so entered unless there is produced to the Collector an invoice of the goods having printed or written thereon a certificate signed by the supplier or consignor, in such form as may be prescribed, stating that those goods are bona fide the produce or manufacture of a country named in the certificate, being a country the produce or manufactures of which are entitled to be entered for duty under the British Preferential Tariff.

(3) Where it is claimed in respect of any goods (not being goods entitled to be entered under the British Preferential Tariff) that they are entitled under any Act or other authority to be entered free of duty or at a lower rate of duty than that set forth in the General Tariff, such goods shall not be so entered unless there is produced to the Collector an invoice of the goods having printed or written thereon a certificate signed by the supplier or consignor, in such form as may be prescribed, stating that those goods are bona fide the produce or manufacture of a country named in the certificate, being a country the produce or manufactures of which (in so far as goods of the kind or class included in the invoice are concerned) are entitled to be so entered free of duty or at a lower rate of duty than that set forth in the General Tariff.

(4) No such invoice as is referred to in subsection two or subsection three hereof shall relate to any goods other than those to which the certificate mentioned therein refers.

(5) The certificate referred to in subsection two or subsection three hereof in respect of any goods shall be produced to the Collector at the time of making entry for those goods, or within such period thereafter as the Collector may allow.

(6) An extension of time under the last preceding subsection shall be granted on such conditions as to security for payment of duty, or as to payment of penalties, or otherwise, as may be prescribed by regulations in that behalf, and such further conditions (if any) as the Minister may in any case direct.

(7) In the case of goods sent by post or through a forwarding agency, or in such other cases (if any) as may be prescribed, or with the consent of the Minister in any other case, the Collector may dispense with any certificate required by this section if evidence, satisfactory to him, is produced that the goods, if entered for duty under the British Preferential Tariff, are entitled to be so entered, or, if entered (otherwise than under the British Preferential Tariff) free of duty or at a lower rate of duty than that set forth in the General Tariff, are entitled to be so entered pursuant to any Act or other authority referred to in subsection three hereof.

(8) Nothing in subsection one of this section shall be so construed as to affect the liability of any goods to duty in accordance with a Tariff adopted under section seven of the Customs Amendment Act, 1921.

(9) This section is in substitution for section sixteen of the Customs Amendment Act, 1921, and that section is hereby accordingly repealed.

8. (1) The duties and exemptions from duty provided for in this Part of this Act shall be in force in the Cook Islands on and from a date to be determined by the Governor-General by Order in Council, and until an Order in Council under this section comes into force the duties and exemptions in force in those islands on the commencement of this Act shall continue to be in force and allowed.

(2) On the coming into force of any such Order in Council the duties and exemptions provided for in this Part of this Act in respect of any goods shall be in force in the Cook Islands, and the duties and exemptions in force in those islands with respect to such goods on the commencement of this Act shall cease and determine:

Provided that nothing herein shall affect the provisions of Part XXI of the principal Act.

9. (1) If any dispute arises in relation to the Tariff as to the current domestic value of any wheat or wheat-flour, or as to the free-on-board export cash price of any wheat-flour, the Minister may determine such dispute in such manner as appears to him just, and his decision thereon shall be final.

(2) For the purposes of this section the term "wheat-flour" includes wheat-meal and similar preparations of wheat.

10. (1) After the passing of this Act no cigarette tubes, cigarette papers, or cigarette paper shall be manufactured in New Zealand for sale except in a manufacturing warehouse licensed under Part VI of the principal Act:

Provided that this subsection shall not apply to cigarette paper entered to be warehoused in any bonded tobacco-factory licensed under section five of the Tobacco Act, 1908, for the manufacture therein of cigarettes.

(2) Any such notice may be at any time in like manner amended or revoked.

13. (1) In respect of motor-spirits used after the last day of September, nineteen hundred and thirty-three, as fuel for any vessel engaged exclusively in the fishing industry for commercial purposes, or for any aircraft, the person using such spirits shall, on application in the prescribed form, be entitled to a refund of duty at the rate of twopence for every gallon so used.

(2) Every such application shall be supported by such declarations or other documentary evidence as may be prescribed or required.

(3) Every person commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of fifty pounds who for the purposes of any application under this section makes any declaration or furnishes any information that is false in any material particular.

(4) Applications for refunds under this section shall be made in respect of the periods ending respectively on the last day of March, June, September, and December in any year. Application for any such refund shall, except as provided in the next succeeding subsection, be made in the month following the close of the period in respect of which it is made or may be made within two months following the close of any such period, but where application is made after the expiration of one month from the close of the appropriate period the amount of the refund otherwise payable shall be reduced by an amount equal to ten per centum thereof.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in the last preceding subsection, a refund of duty pursuant to this section may in any special case be made before the close of any period in respect of motor-spirits used within that period.

(6) No refund of duty shall be allowed under this section unless application therefor is made in accordance with the provisions of subsection four or of subsection five hereof.

(7) Unless provision to the contrary is made in accordance with regulations under the principal Act, applications for refunds under this section may be made to and dealt with by the Registrar of Motor-vehicles as if they were applications for refunds made in accordance with section eight of the Motor-spirits Taxation Act, 1927.

(8) Section four of the Customs Acts Amendment Act, 1932-33, is hereby repealed.

(9) This section shall be deemed to have come into force on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and thirty-four.

14. If the Minister is satisfied with respect to any motor-spirits imported into New Zealand that such motor-spirits are intended for use in the Chatham Islands, he may, under such conditions as in his discretion he thinks fit, direct either that duty on such motor-spirits may be remitted to the extent of sixpence per gallon or that a refund of duty to a like extent may be made in respect of such motor-spirits at any time after such spirits have been reshipped to the Chatham Islands for use therein.

15. Section eleven of the Customs Acts Amendment Act, 1931, is hereby amended by omitting from subsection two the words "Duty at the rate for the time being prescribed by the British Preferential Tariff (including primage or surtax, if any)", and substituting the words "Duty at a rate to be fixed from time to time by the Governor-General by Order in Council, not exceeding the rate for the time being prescribed by the British Preferential Tariff".

16. (1) The Minister shall from time to time, by notice in the Gazette, determine the goods which may be entered under Tariff item 389 (a) as motor-vehicles unassembled or completely knocked down, and may in like manner determine the conditions under which such goods shall be imported into and used in New Zealand and the purposes for which those goods shall be so used.

(2) Any notice under this section may in like manner be varied or revoked.

(3) If any person enters under Tariff item 389 (a) any goods not entitled to be so entered, or uses any goods entered under that item otherwise than in accordance with any determination made by the Minister under the authority of this section, he shall be liable to a penalty of one hundred pounds or of three times the value of the goods so entered or used, whichever is the greater.

Minister may fix conditions to be complied with on importation of unassembled parts of motor-vehicles.

PART II.

BEER DUTY.

17. This Part of this Act shall be read together with and deemed part of Part III of the Finance Act, 1915.

18. (1) Duty in accordance with Part III of the Finance Act, 1915, shall be payable on all beer brewed in New Zealand of which the worts are pitched for fermentation after the passing of this Act, as follows:—

(a) Where the specific gravity of the worts used in the production of the beer does not exceed 1,047, the duty shall be at the rate of one shilling and threepence per gallon of the beer; and

(b) Where the specific gravity of the worts exceeds 1,047, the duty per gallon shall be at the rate aforesaid, increased by one-sixteenth of a penny for every unit of specific gravity above 1,047.

(2) Such duty shall be deemed to be revenue of Customs within the meaning of the Customs Act, 1913, and shall be recoverable accordingly by action at the suit of the Crown.

(3) For the purposes of Part III of the Finance Act, 1915, the specific gravity of distilled water at sixty degrees Fahrenheit shall be taken at 1,000, and the specific gravity of worts shall be considered in relation thereto.

(4) Section nineteen of the Customs Acts Amendment Act, 1931, is hereby repealed.

19. (1) If it appears to the Minister, on the report of the Collector, and on such other evidence (if any) as he considers sufficient, that any applicant for a license under section seventy-three of the Finance Act, 1915 (relating to the manufacture of hop-beer), is, by reason of the fact that he is not a person of good character and reputation, unfitted to be the holder of such license, the Minister may, in his discretion, direct the Collector that the license shall not be issued.

(2) If any person is aggrieved by reason of the refusal of the Collector, acting by direction of the Minister, to grant a license under section seventy-three of the

On any appeal under this section the decision of the Magistrate shall be final and conclusive.

PART III.

TOBACCO.

20. This Part of this Act shall be read together with and deemed part of the Tobacco Act, 1908 (hereinafter in this Part referred to as the principal Act).

21. (1) Section two of the principal Act, as amended by section twenty-three of the Finance Act, 1921 (No. 2), is hereby amended by omitting from the definition of the terms "manufacture", "manufacturing", and "manufactured" all words after the words "process of handling tobacco".

(2) Subsection two of section three of the principal Act and sections twenty-three and twenty-four of the Finance Act, 1921 (No. 2), are hereby repealed.

22. (1) There shall be levied, collected, and paid on tobacco manufactured in New Zealand, and entered therein for home consumption after the passing of this Act, the excise duties hereinafter specified in respect of the following classes of such tobacco, namely:—

(a) On tobacco (cut)—

Four shillings and sixpence the pound.

(b) On other tobacco—

Four shillings and fourpence the pound.

(c) On cigars and snuff—

Four shillings the pound.

(d) On cigarettes—

(i) Not exceeding in weight two and one-half pounds the thousand—

Up to and including the thirty-first day of October, nineteen hundred and thirty-four: Twenty-one shillings and tenpence the thousand.

This Part to be read with Tobacco Act, 1908.

On and after the first day of November, nineteen hundred and thirty-four: Thirteen shillings and sixpence the thousand.

(ii) Exceeding in weight two and one-half pounds the thousand—

Up to and including the thirty-first day of October, nineteen hundred and thirty-four: Eight shillings and tenpence the pound.

On and after the first day of November, nineteen hundred and thirty-four: Five shillings and sixpence the pound.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed to restrict the operation of section twenty-five of the Customs Acts Amendment Act, 1930, as amended in accordance with the Third Schedule to this Act.

See Reprint of Statutes,
Vol. VII, p. 243

(3) Where Customs duty has been paid on any unmanufactured tobacco used in New Zealand in the manufacture of any tobacco of any of the classes mentioned in subsection one of this section, and such manufactured tobacco has been entered for home consumption after the tenth day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-four (whether before or after the passing of this Act), the following provisions of this subsection shall apply:—

(a) If the aggregate of the Customs duty paid on such unmanufactured tobacco and the excise duty paid on such manufactured tobacco exceeds the aggregate of the Customs and excise duties that would have been payable if the unmanufactured tobacco had been entered on the same day as the manufactured tobacco, the Collector shall allow a refund of the difference between the aggregate duties so paid and the aggregate of the duties that would have been payable as aforesaid:

(b) If the aggregate of the Customs duty paid on such unmanufactured tobacco and the excise duty paid on such manufactured tobacco is less than the aggregate of the Customs and excise duties that would have been payable if the unmanufactured tobacco had been entered on the same day as the manufactured tobacco, an additional amount of excise duty shall be payable equal to the difference between the aggregate duties so paid and the aggregate of the duties that would have been payable as aforesaid.

(4) For the purposes of the last preceding subsection the decision of the Minister that any manufactured tobacco has been wholly or partly manufactured from any unmanufactured tobacco on which Customs duty has been paid shall be final and conclusive.

23. If the licensee of any bonded tobacco-factory uses in the manufacture of cigarettes any unmanufactured tobacco which has been entered under Tariff item 81 (2) on declaration that it will be used only in the manufacture of tobacco, cigars, or snuff, he shall be liable to a penalty of one hundred pounds or of three times the value of the cigarettes in which any such tobacco is used, whichever sum is the greater.

Penalty for using in the manufacture of cigarettes any unmanufactured tobacco imported for other purposes.

24. (1) Before any raw tobacco grown in New Zealand is removed, for purposes of curing or for any other purpose whatsoever, from the premises on which it was grown, the occupier of such premises shall give to the Collector notice in writing of the number of packages of such tobacco, the mark or marks on such packages, the quantity of tobacco to be removed, the person to whom it is to be delivered, the place to which it is to be removed, the building or other place in which it is to be stored, and such other particulars as the Collector may require.

Tobacco grown in New Zealand to become subject to control of Customs when removed from place where grown.

(2) When any raw tobacco grown in New Zealand is removed from the premises on which it was grown or from the place of curing it shall be carried directly to and be deposited in a duly licensed bonded tobacco-factory, or a warehouse duly licensed under Part VI of the Customs Act, 1913, or such other place of storage as may be approved by the Collector, or it shall be exported from New Zealand, save that (in the case of tobacco removed as aforesaid from the place of curing) it may be removed directly from such place to the premises on which it was grown.

(3) With respect to all such tobacco the following provisions shall apply:—

- (a) If it is deposited in any bonded tobacco-factory as aforesaid (whether directly from the premises on which it was grown or from any other place) it shall be entered in the stock-book of the manufacturer and duly accounted for to the satisfaction of the Collector :
- (b) If it is deposited in a licensed warehouse it shall be duly warehoused in the manner and under the conditions provided by the Customs Act, 1913, with respect to dutiable goods warehoused in a warehouse without payment of duty on the first entry thereof :
- (c) If it is deposited in a place of curing or other place of storage approved by the Collector it shall be stored therein to the satisfaction of the Collector and shall not be removed therefrom without his permission and under conditions approved by him. With respect to any tobacco to which this paragraph relates, the Collector may require such security as he thinks fit for the due observance of the law relating thereto, and the proprietor or occupier of such place of storage or the person in charge or control thereof shall furnish to the Collector such particulars as to the quantity of tobacco received into and deposited in or removed from such place of storage together with such other particulars (if any) as the Collector may require :
- (d) If it is intended to export such tobacco from New Zealand it shall be carried by the shortest or usual route to the port or place where it is to be shipped, and in every other case shall be carried by the shortest or usual route to such factory, warehouse, or approved place of storage, as the case may be.
- (4) Before any such tobacco is removed from a bonded tobacco-factory, licensed warehouse, or approved place of storage as aforesaid to the premises on which it was grown, notice in writing of the intention to remove such tobacco shall be given by the occupier of such factory, warehouse, or place of storage, as the case may be, to the Collector whose office is nearest to the premises on which the tobacco was grown. On the delivery of such tobacco at such premises the occupier thereof shall immediately notify the Collector of such delivery, and the provisions of this section shall apply to such tobacco as if it had never been removed from such premises.

(5) If any such tobacco is dealt with otherwise than as provided by this section it shall be forfeited, and any person concerned in such dealing shall be liable to a fine of one hundred pounds or of three times the value of the tobacco, whichever is the greater.

(6) As soon as any raw tobacco grown in New Zealand is removed from the premises on which it was grown it shall, for the purposes of the Customs Acts, be deemed to become subject to the control of the Customs.

(7) For the purposes of this section the term "Collector" means the Collector of Customs under the Customs Act, 1913, whose office is nearest to the premises on which any raw tobacco is grown, or to the factory, warehouse, or place of storage where it is deposited, as the case may be.

(8) This section is in substitution for section sixteen of the principal Act, and that section is hereby accordingly repealed.

25. Section twelve of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting from subsection one the words "or to six months' imprisonment, with or without hard labour".

26. (1) Section twenty-eight of the principal Act, as amended by section twenty-six of the Finance Act, 1921 (No. 2), is hereby amended as follows:—

(a) By omitting from subsection one the words "but not so as to be suitable for the manufacture of cigarettes":

(b) By repealing subsection six, and substituting the following subsection:—

"(6) Every person who at any time has in his possession or on his business premises or in any way uses any such cutting-machine except pursuant to the authority of a warrant issued under the foregoing provisions of this section, is liable to a fine of two hundred pounds".

(2) Paragraphs (a) and (e) of section twenty-six of the Finance Act, 1921 (No. 2), are hereby repealed.

Security to be given by licensees.

27. This Part of this Act shall be read together with and deemed part of the Distillation Act, 1908 (in this Part referred to as the principal Act).

28. (1) Before any license is granted under the principal Act the Minister may require the applicant to give security satisfactory to him for the due and faithful observance of the provisions of that Act.

(2) With respect to securities given under the last preceding subsection the following provisions shall apply:—

(a) Such securities may, as required by the Minister, be by bond (with or without sureties), or guarantee to His Majesty the King, or by a deposit of cash, or by all or any of those methods:

(b) Regulations under the principal Act may prescribe forms of bonds, guarantees, and other securities; and any security may be either in the prescribed form, or to the like effect, or in such other form as the Minister in any particular case approves:

(c) If the Minister is at any time dissatisfied with the sufficiency of any security he may require a new security in lieu thereof or in addition thereto; and in default of such new security being given he may cancel the license or suspend the same for such time as he thinks fit.

(3) This section is in substitution for section eight of the principal Act, and that section is hereby accordingly repealed.

29. (1) Section eleven of the principal Act is hereby amended by repealing paragraph (b), and substituting the following new paragraphs:—

“(b) The licensee shall not use the still or other apparatus to which the license relates, or suffer the same to be used, for any purpose or in any locality, house, or premises other than those specified in the license:

“(d) If the person to whom a license has been issued is convicted of any offence against this Act or has forfeited any security under this Act, the Minister may, if he thinks fit, cancel the license or suspend it for any period not exceeding six months.”

(2) Every license granted under section nine or section ten of the principal Act and in force on the passing of this Act shall be deemed to have been issued in accordance with the provisions of the principal Act as amended by this Part of this Act, and shall continue in force accordingly.

30. Section twelve of the principal Act is hereby amended as follows:—

(a) By omitting from subsection one the words “of not less than twenty-five gallons nor more than fifty gallons capacity”; and

(b) By repealing subsection five, and substituting the following subsection:—

“(5) Any person who uses a still in respect of which he is licensed under this section for any purpose other than that specified in the license, or who uses the spirits distilled by him except for the purpose specified in subsection one hereof, is liable to a fine of one hundred pounds.”

31. (1) Section thirteen of the principal Act is hereby amended as follows:—

(a) By inserting, after the words “All licenses granted under this Act” in subsection one, the words “for the purposes mentioned in section four or in section twelve hereof”;

(b) By omitting from subsection two the words “sums respectively mentioned in the Third Schedule hereto”, and substituting the words “sum of ten pounds”; and

(c) By omitting from the proviso to subsection four the word “bond”, and substituting the word “security”.

(2) The Third Schedule to the principal Act is hereby repealed.

Section 12 of principal Act (as to wine stills) amended.
See Reprint of Statutes, Vol. IV, p. 183

Section 13 of principal Act (as to duration of licenses thereunder) amended.
Ibid., p. 184

Repeal.

Section 137 of principal Act amended.
See Reprint of Statutes, Vol. IV, p. 229

32. Section one hundred and thirty-seven of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding to subsection one the words "Such regulations may make provision for the payment of fees sufficient to cover the reasonable costs of supervision of stills of the kind referred to in section twelve hereof".

PART V.

GOLD DUTY.

This Part to be read with Gold Duty Act, 1908.
See Reprint of Statutes, Vol. VII, p. 264

33. This Part of this Act shall be read together with and deemed part of the Gold Duty Act, 1908 (hereinafter in this Part referred to as the principal Act).

Section 3 of principal Act amended.

34. (1) Section three of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting, after the words "exported from", the words "the North Island of".

Consequential repeal.

(2) Subsection three of section one of the principal Act is hereby repealed.

Section 6 of principal Act amended.

35. Section six of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding to subsection two the following words: "Any gold carried coastwise from one part of New Zealand to another shall be forfeited if it is so carried in contravention of any of the provisions of any such Proclamation".

PART VI.

SALES TAX.

This Part to be read with Sales Tax Act, 1932-33

36. This Part of this Act shall be read together with and deemed part of the Sales Tax Act, 1932-33 (hereinafter in this Part referred to as the principal Act).

Imposition of special sales tax on goods liable to excise duty and sold at "in bond" prices.

37. Where any goods manufactured in New Zealand, of a class or kind liable to excise duty and also to sales tax, are sold, otherwise than to a licensed wholesaler for resale by him, at a price that does not include the excise duty, sales tax (in addition to any sales tax otherwise payable on such goods) shall be payable thereon, at the time of the entry of such goods for home consumption, by the person entering those goods. For the purposes of any sales tax payable under this section the sale value on which the tax is assessed shall be deemed to be the amount of the excise duty paid on the goods.

38. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in paragraph (c) of subsection one of section thirteen of the principal Act, the sale value of imported goods included in the Tariff items numbered 76, 77, 79, 80, and 84 respectively, or in such other Tariff items as the Minister by notice in the Gazette may from time to time specify in that behalf, shall be the sum of the amounts referred to in subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of the said paragraph (c), together with twenty-five per centum of the amount referred to in the said subparagraph (i).

Special provisions as to computation of sales tax in respect of certain classes of imported goods.

(2) Any notice given by the Minister for the purposes of this section may be in like manner varied or revoked, and the Minister may, by like notice, exclude from the operation of this section goods included in any of the Tariff items specifically mentioned in subsection one hereof.

39. (1) The Minister may release any taxpayer wholly or in part from his liability to pay any sales tax if he is satisfied that such tax is irrecoverable or that payment of such tax would entail serious hardship.

Minister may waive payment of sales tax in certain cases.

(2) This section shall be deemed to have come into force on the passing of the principal Act.

PART VII.

RATIFICATION OF RESOLUTIONS.

40. (1) Every resolution of the House of Representatives passed on or after the tenth day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-four, and before the passing of this Act, purporting to impose any duties of Customs or excise, or to create any exemptions from such duties, shall be deemed to have taken effect and to have had the force of law, according to the tenor of such resolution, and to have so continued until the passing of this Act, or until altered or revoked, before the passing of this Act, by a resolution of the House of Representatives.

Ratification of certain resolutions imposing duties and allowing exemptions.

(2) Every such resolution as is mentioned in the last preceding subsection shall be deemed to be revoked on the passing of this Act :

Provided that all duties which, by virtue of the said resolutions, have become due and payable since the passing thereof and before the passing of this Act, and all penalties and forfeitures which have been incurred, shall be recovered and enforced notwithstanding the revocation of the said resolutions by this section.

41. (1) Except as provided in section twenty-two hereof, no additional duty shall be chargeable in respect of goods entered for home consumption during the currency of any resolution referred to in the last preceding section by reason merely of the fact that the duties or exemptions imposed or created by such resolution have been altered by any subsequent resolution or by this Act.

(2) When any duty has been paid under the authority of any such resolution in excess of the duty payable under this Act the Collector may allow a refund of such excess:

Provided that no refund shall be allowed with respect to tobacco manufactured in New Zealand except in accordance with the provisions of subsection three of section twenty-two hereof.

42. All duties of Customs and excise that have become due and payable, and all penalties and forfeitures that have been incurred prior to the passing of this Act, shall be recovered and enforced in the same manner as if this Act had not been passed.

PART VIII.

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS AND REPEALS.

43. The Customs Acts are hereby amended in manner indicated in the Third Schedule hereto.

44. The enactments mentioned in the Fourth Schedule hereto are hereby repealed to the extent indicated in that Schedule.

Goods entered during currency of resolutions not to be affected by higher rates of duty.

Saving of existing rights of action.

Miscellaneous amendments of Customs Acts.

Repeals.
