WHEREAS it is expedient to repeal an Ordinance, No. 6, Session V., called "The Public Roads and Works Ordinance:" Preamble.

1. Be it enacted by the Lieutenant-Governor of New Munster, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, That the same, as far as regards the Province of New Munster, be repealed. Repeal of No. 6, Session V.

2. Be it enacted, That the Lieutenant-Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, upon a requisition to that effect from a majority of the Magistrates of the district in which such town is situated, may proclaim from time to time the towns within which the provisions of this Ordinance shall take effect. Lieutenant-Governor to proclaim town.

3. Be it enacted, That every person who shall have to his own use, either in freehold or as the occupier, any lands or tenements within any towns proclaimed to be within the provisions of this Ordinance shall, being duly enrolled in manner hereafter provided, be qualified to vote at the election of a Board of Commissioners, to be elected for the purpose of levying a yearly rate on all houses lands and tenements situated within the town, and for the purpose of superintending and managing the making maintaining and repairing the streets roads quays and highways within the same. Commissioners to be elected.

4. All claims to the right of voting shall be according to the Form to this Ordinance annexed, and shall be sent in to the Resident Magistrate of the town proclaimed as aforesaid, or if there be no Resident Magistrate in the town, then to the nearest Resident Magistrate, on or before the first day of September in each year, and all claims not so sent in shall be disallowed. Claims to vote to be sent in.

5. Every Resident Magistrate shall, within seven days after the receipt of such claims as aforesaid, cause the names of the claimants to be posted in alphabetical order in some public place in the town, accompanied by a notice naming some day, prior to the fifteenth of September, on which all objections to the same shall be heard and determined by a Bench of Magistrates, and the list so revised shall be deemed to be the list of electors for the ensuing twelve calendar months, and shall be published in the Government Gazette, with a notice from the Resident Magistrate to the electors to assemble at some given time and place, before the twenty-fifth of September, for the purpose of electing Commissioners (not to exceed five in number nor less than three), and such Commissioners or the majority of them shall form a Board for the town, with authority to carry into effect the provisions of this Ordinance. A Bench of magistrates to decide upon claims.

Commissioners to continue in office for one year.

6. Be it enacted, That the Commissioners so elected as aforesaid shall continue in office for one year, or until the next election of Commissioners; and that any Commissioner going out of office shall be eligible for re-election; and that in case of the insolvency absence from the Province mental incapacity or death of any Commissioner, the vacancy so created shall be filled up within a month by the election of another Commissioner.

Commissioners to levy a yearly rate.

7. Be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall levy a yearly rate, not exceeding sixpence in the pound, on all houses lands and tenements situated within the limits of any town proclaimed as aforesaid, and every such rate shall be made upon an estimate of the net annual value of the lands and hereditaments rated thereunto; and the said rate when collected shall be paid to the Colonial Treasurer.

Assessors to be appointed by warrant under the hands of the Commissioners.

8. Be it enacted, That the said Commissioners may, from time to time, by warrant under their hands, appoint one or more proper persons to be Assessors to rate and assess all such houses lands and tenements, and such Assessors shall, within thirty days after the delivery to them of the warrant of their appointment, return to the said Commissioners an assessment for the place named in such warrant; and the assessment shall specify, in different columns, the names of the respective owners or occupiers of all houses lands and tenements comprised in such assessment, the full and fair annual value of the same, and the amount of rate chargeable thereon respectively; and when the land or premises shall be unoccupied, the full and fair annual value thereof.

Assessment to be entered in a book.

When assessment
allowed notice
thereof shall be given.

9. Be it enacted, That when any such assessment shall have been allowed by the said Commissioners, they shall sign the same, and shall cause public notice to be given of such assessment, and of the place where the same may be inspected, by advertisement in the Government Gazette: Provided that every person in whose custody such assessment may be shall permit every owner or occupier of property included in such assessment to inspect the same during office hours, and to make extracts therefrom, without payment of fee or reward; and if such person wilfully neglect or refuse to permit such inspection or extract to be made, he shall, on conviction before any two Justices, forfeit and pay for every such offence any sum not exceeding five pounds as the Justices shall think fit.

Appeal against assessment.

10. Be it enacted, That if any person who shall have paid the amount of rate charged upon him by the assessment made by any Assessor under this Ordinance shall think himself aggrieved by such assessment, on the ground that such assessment includes any property for which he is not rateable under this Ordinance or that it assesses his rateable property beyond its full and fair annual value, or that any person is omitted out of such assessment, or that the property of any person is assessed below its full and fair annual value, the person so considering himself aggrieved may appeal to the next Court of Sessions of the Peace, or, until the establishment of such Court, to a Bench of not less than five Magistrates, within twenty-one days after public notice of such assessment shall have been given, as hereinbefore mentioned; and in case the said Court of Appeal shall think the appellant entitled to relief, it shall order the assessment to be amended in such manner as may be necessary for giving him relief, and shall also order any money paid by him to be returned to him; and in case he shall have appealed on the ground that any person is omitted out of the assessment, the said Court of Appeal may order the name of such person to be inserted in the assessment, and to be therein rated at such an amount as it shall deem just; and in case the appellant shall have appealed on the ground that the property of any person is assessed
