AN ACT for the Naturalization of certain Title.
Persons in the Colony of New Zealand.
[18th August, 1858.]

WHEREAS by an Act made and passed by the General Preamble.
Assembly of New Zealand, intituled "The Naturalization Act, 1856," it was amongst others things enacted, that all and singular the persons who should be declared to come within the operation of the said Act, by any Proclamation to be issued by the Governor, should, until the termination of the next Session of the General Assembly, be deemed and taken, within the Islands of New Zealand, to be natural born subjects of Her Majesty: AND WHEREAS the persons particularly described in the Schedule marked A hereunto annexed, have from time to time been so declared to come within the operation of the said recited Act, and it is expedient that there should be removed from them, within the Colony of New Zealand, the disabilities to which Aliens are by law subjected.

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand, in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Naturalization.

Persons named in Schedule A to be naturalized.

I. The persons who are particularly described in the Schedule A to this Act annexed, shall to all intents and purposes whatever within the Colony of New Zealand, be deemed and taken to be, and to have been from the dates set opposite their respective names, natural born subjects of Her Majesty, as if they had been respectively born within the realm of England.

Also persons named in Schedule B.

II. And whereas the persons next hereinafter mentioned have settled in this Colony, and it is expedient that there should be removed from them the disabilities to which Aliens are by Law subject: BE IT THEREFORE FURTHER ENACTED that the persons particularly described in the Schedule marked B to this Act annexed, shall to all intents and purposes whatever, within the Colony of New Zealand, be deemed and taken to be and to have been from the dates set opposite their respective names natural born subjects of Her Majesty as if they had been respectively born within the Realm of England.

Persons may be naturalized by Proclamation.

III. And whereas there may from time to time be other persons resident within the Colony of New Zealand whom it may be expedient to relieve, before the next Session of the General Assembly from the disabilities to which aliens are by law subject: BE IT THEREFORE FURTHER ENACTED that every person who shall be declared to come within the operation of this Act by any Proclamation to be issued in that behalf by His Excellency the Governor, shall, from the time in such Proclamation specified, be deemed and taken, until the termination of the next Session of the General Assembly, to be, and to have been from such specified time, a natural born subject of Her Majesty within the Colony of New Zealand, as fully to all intents and purposes, as if his name had been inserted in the Schedule hereunto annexed: Provided always, that every such Proclamation shall contain the description, occupation, or calling of every person therein named, and his place of residence at the date of such Proclamation.
