AN ACT to amend the law relating to Drafts on Bankers. [19th August, 1858.]

WHEREAS doubts have arisen as to the obligations of Bankers in respect to cross-written Drafts, and whereas it would conduce to the convenience of commerce, the security of property, and the prevention of crime, if drawers and holders of Drafts on Bankers payable to bearer, or to order on demand, were enabled effectually to direct the payment of the same to be made only to or through some Banker: Be it therefore enacted by the General Assembly of New Zealand, in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows;

I. In every case where a Draft on any Banker, made payable to bearer or to order on demand, bears across its face an addition in writing or stamped letters of the name of a Banker, such Draft shall be payable only to or through such Banker,
