AN ACT for the Naturalization of certain persons in the Colony of New Zealand. Title.
[8th October 1866.]

WHEREAS by an Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand intituled "The Naturalization Act 1865" it was amongst other things enacted that every person who should be declared to come within the operation of the said Act by any proclamation to be issued in that behalf by the Governor should from the time in such proclamation specified be deemed and taken until the termination of the then next session of the General Assembly to be and to have been from such specified time a natural-born subject of Her Majesty within the said Colony And whereas the persons particularly described in the Schedule A. hereunto annexed have from time to time been so declared to come within the operation of the said Act and the persons particularly described in the Schedule marked B. hereunto annexed have settled in the said Colony and are desirous of being declared to be natural-born subjects of Her Majesty within the said Colony and it is expedient that there should be removed from all such persons as aforesaid within the said Colony the disabilities to which aliens are by law subjected Preamble.

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows—

I. The Short Title of this Act shall be "The Naturalization Act 1866." Short Title.

II. The persons who are particularly described in the Schedules A. and B. to this Act annexed shall to all intents and purposes whatsoever within the said Colony be deemed and taken to be and to have been from the dates set opposite their respective names natural-born subjects of Her Majesty as if they had been respectively born within the realm of England. Persons named in Schedules A. and B. naturalized.
