ANNO TRICESIMO PRIMO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

No. 48.

AN ACT to amend the Representation Acts. Title. [10th October 1867.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows—

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be “The Westland Representation Act 1867.” Short Title.

2. After the termination of the present Session of the General Assembly the House of Representatives shall consist of seventy-two members in addition to such members as may be elected to represent Aboriginal Natives. Increase of Representation.

3. Instead of the several Electoral Districts of Waimea and Westland as defined in “The Representation Act 1865” and the Schedule thereto and for each of which districts respectively it is in the said Act provided that one member shall be returned to the said House there shall be four electoral districts the boundaries whereof are respectively defined and set forth in the Schedule hereto one shall be named “Waimea” and for it one member shall be returned to the said House and one other shall be named “Westland North” and for it one member shall be returned to the said House and one other shall be named “Westland South” and for it one member shall be returned to the said House and one other shall be named “The Westland Boroughs” and for it one member shall be returned to the said House. Westland and Waimea divided into three districts “Waimea” “Westland North” “Westland South” and “The Westland Boroughs” each to return one member.

4. It shall be lawful for the Governor with the advice and consent of the Executive Council by proclamation published in the New Zealand Gazette from time to time to declare that any town or towns or city or cities situate within either of the Electoral Districts of Westland North or Westland South as constituted by this Act shall be included within and form part of the Electoral District of the Westland Boroughs and from and after such time as shall be fixed in and by any such proclamation for the coming into operation thereof every town or city specified in any such proclamation shall form part of the Electoral District of the Westland Boroughs as fully as if such town or city had been specified in the definition of such district contained in the Schedule hereto and shall cease to form part of the electoral districts of Westland North or Westland South as the case may be Provided however the authority herein given to the Governor to declare towns or cities to be included within the aforesaid electoral district shall extend only to such towns or cities as shall hereafter be incorporated under any Act of the General Assembly of New Zealand Provided also that no such declaration shall be made or proclaimed before the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight and the time to be fixed in any such proclamation for the coming into operation thereof shall not be any day in the months of July August Governor may include other incorporated towns within Westland Boroughs District.

Westland Representation.

September or October in any year and shall be not earlier than ninety days from the day of the first publication of such proclamation in the New Zealand Gazette.

Maps or plans of districts.

5. The said several electoral districts constituted by this Act are delineated on maps or plans authenticated for the purposes of this Act by the signatures of the Speakers of the Legislative Council and House of Representatives of New Zealand respectively and are deposited in the office of the Colonial Secretary of New Zealand. And any city or town which shall at any time be declared by any such proclamation as aforesaid to form part of the district of the Westland Boroughs shall be delineated on a map authenticated by the signature of the Governor and shall be deposited within seven days after the day of the first publication of the proclamation relating to such city or town in the office of the Colonial Secretary.

Rolls to be formed.

6. Immediately after the passing of this Act registration officers to be appointed for the districts constituted by this Act shall form new electoral rolls for such districts respectively.

Mode of forming new rolls.

7. For the purpose of framing such new electoral rolls the name of every elector on the roll for any or either of the electoral districts of Waimea or Westland as constituted before the passing of this Act and which under the provisions of "The Registration of Electors Act 1866" will come into force on the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven and whose qualification is in respect of lands or tenements situated within either of the electoral districts constituted by this Act shall be placed on the new electoral roll of that one of the electoral districts constituted by this Act in which the lands or tenements in respect whereof he is so registered are situate or if such lands or tenements are situate in two or more of the new districts constituted by this Act then such name shall be placed on the several new electoral rolls of those districts constituted by this Act within which such lands or tenements are situate. Provided that if any elector on the former rolls be registered in respect of lands or tenements situate in two or more of the new districts constituted by this Act the Registration Officer may in forming the new rolls omit the name of such elector from the roll of either one or more of the new electoral districts within which such elector may not appear to the Registration Officer to have a sufficient electoral qualification.

Publication and duration of rolls.

8. Upon such new electoral rolls being so framed as aforesaid the same shall forthwith be forwarded to the Colonial Secretary and shall be published in such convenient manner as the Governor shall direct and from the day of such publication the electoral roll formed for each district shall be the electoral roll to be used for such district for all purposes until a revised electoral roll for the same shall be in force under the provisions of the law for the time being for the registration of electors.

Present members to represent certain districts.

9. The person who has been returned to serve as and at the time of the passing of this Act is member of the said House for the Electoral District of Waimea as constituted before the passing of this Act shall so long as he retains his seat be deemed to be and be for all purposes the member of the said House for the Electoral District of Waimea as constituted by this Act and the person who has been returned to serve as and at the time of the passing of this Act as member of the said House for the Electoral District of Westland as constituted before the passing of this Act shall so long as he retains his seat be deemed to be and be for all purposes the member of the said House for the Electoral District of the Westland Boroughs as constituted by this Act.

Westland Representation

10. Upon the formation of the aforesaid new electoral rolls for the several districts of Westland North and Westland South but not earlier than the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven writs shall be issued for the election of one member for the district of Westland North and one member for the district of Westland South. Issue of writs.

11. From time to time after the publication of any proclamation by the Governor under the fourth section of this Act the registration officer for the time being of the electoral district of the Westland Boroughs and the registration officer for the time being of each electoral district within which any city or town specified in such proclamation was included at the date of such proclamation shall form new rolls for the district of the Westland Boroughs as extended by such proclamation and for the electoral district within which any such city or town was included at the date of such proclamation and for the purpose of framing such new rolls the name of every elector on the roll for the time being for any or either of the electoral districts of Westland North or Westland South and which under the provisions of "The Registration of Electors Act 1866" is for the time being in force and whose qualification is in respect of lands or tenements situated within the limits of any city or town specified in such proclamation shall be placed on the new roll of the district of the Westland Boroughs as extended by such proclamation and shall be removed from the roll of the district of Westland North or Westland South as the case may be. And if such lands or tenements are situate partly within any such city or town and partly without then such name shall not be so removed but shall be retained on the roll of Westland North or Westland South as the case may be but shall also be placed on the new roll for the district of the Westland Boroughs. Provided however that in any such case as last aforesaid the registration officers respectively in forming the new rolls for Westland North or Westland South or the Westland Boroughs may remove or omit as the case may require the name of any such elector from the roll of either one of such districts so diminished or extended as the case may be by the operation of any such proclamation as aforesaid within which such elector may not appear to the registration officer to have a sufficient electoral qualification and upon such new electoral rolls being so framed as last aforesaid the same shall be forthwith forwarded to the Colonial Secretary and shall be published in such convenient manner as the Governor shall direct at least fifteen days before the day fixed in such proclamation for the coming into operation thereof and from the day so fixed in such proclamation as aforesaid but not before that day the electoral roll so formed as last aforesaid for each district shall be the electoral roll to be used for such district for all purposes until a revised electoral roll for the same shall be in force under the provisions of "The Registration of Electors Act 1866" or any other Act for the time being in force for the registration of electors. Provided lastly that until the day so fixed in such proclamation as aforesaid for the coming into operation thereof the electoral districts of Westland North Westland South and the Westland Boroughs as constituted at the time of the publication of such proclamation shall remain unaffected thereby and the rolls for such districts as last aforesaid in force at the time of the first publication of such proclamation under this Act or "The Registration of Electors Act 1866" or which shall come in force under this Act or "The Registration of Electors Act 1866" date of the first publication of such proclamation shall remain in force until and throughout the day previous to the day fixed in such proclamation for the coming into operation thereof. New rolls to be formed upon the extension of the Westland Boroughs District.

Westland Representation.
