AN ACT to provide for the Surrender of Fugitive Title.
Criminals.

[Reserved for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure.]

WHEREAS by the Act of the Imperial Parliament the Short Title Preamble. whereof is "The Extradition Act, 1870," it is amongst other things enacted, that if by any law made after the passing of the said Act by the Legislature of any British Possession provision is made for carrying into effect within such Possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in such British Possession, Her Majesty may by the Order in Council applying the said Act in the case of any foreign State or by any subsequent order, either—

Suspend the operation within any such British Possession of the said Act, or of any part thereof, so far as it relates to such foreign State, and so long as such law continues in force there and no longer;

Or direct that such law or Ordinance, or any part thereof, shall have effect in such British Possession, with or without modifications and alterations as if it were part of the Act:

And whereas by the Act of the Imperial Parliament the Short Title whereof is "The Extradition Act, 1873," it is enacted that "The Extradition Act, 1873," shall be construed as one with "The Extradition Act, 1870," and that the said Acts may be construed together as "The Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873:"

New Zealand Extradition.

And whereas it is expedient that such provision as is hereafter contained should be made for carrying into effect within New Zealand the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in New Zealand :

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Short Title.

1. The Short Title of this Act shall be "The New Zealand Extradition Act, 1874."

Provisions of the Extradition Act to be applied in New Zealand as modified by this Act.

2. The provisions of the Acts of the Imperial Parliament the Short Title whereof is "The Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873," (hereafter called "the said Acts,") shall be in force and applied in New Zealand subject to the modifications and alterations hereafter contained.

Appointment of Commissioners.

3. The Governor may from time to time appoint such of the Judges of District Courts or Resident Magistrates as he thinks fit to be Commissioners for the purposes of this Act, and may revoke any such appointments.

Powers of Police Magistrate to be exercised by Commissioners.

4. The powers by the said Acts vested in and the acts authorized or required by the said Acts to be done by a Police Magistrate shall, with relation to the surrender of a fugitive criminal within or suspected to be within New Zealand, be exercised or done by any one of the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of this Act as herein provided.

Gaol.

5. Each public gaol within New Zealand shall be deemed to be substituted for a prison in Middlesex, and shall be a prison for the purposes of the said Acts.
