

New Zealand.

ANALYSIS.

- | | |
|--|--|
| Title. 1. Short Title. 2. Senate may confer degree of Doctor of Philosophy. 3. Section 13 of Amendment Act, 1914, amended. | 4. Section 17 of Amendment Act, 1914, amended. 5. Section 27 of Amendment Act, 1914, amended. 6. "Bequest" defined for purposes of section 33 of Amendment Act, 1914. |
|--|--|

1923, No. 39.

AN ACT to amend the New Zealand University Act, 1908.

Title.

[29th August, 1923.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the New Zealand University Amendment Act, 1923, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the New Zealand University Act, 1908 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

Short Title.

2. In addition to the degrees which it is empowered by section twenty-seven of the principal Act to confer, the Senate shall have power to confer the degree of Doctor of Philosophy, and in respect thereof the provisions of that section shall apply.

Senate may confer degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

Refer: 1926 Inset

3. Section thirteen of the New Zealand University Amendment Act, 1914, is hereby amended by repealing paragraphs (e) and (j), and substituting the following paragraphs:—

Section 13 of Amendment Act, 1914, amended.

"(e.) There shall be payable to the holder of a scholarship the sum of twenty ^{five} pounds per annum in addition to such amount as may be approved by the Minister of Education in respect of the tuition fees payable by such holder at the affiliated institution to which he for the time being belongs in connection with any course of study pursued by him with the approval of the Chancellor:

Refer: 1926 Inset.

"Provided that, except in special cases approved by the Minister, not more than one year's fees shall be payable with respect to any subject at the same grade."

“(j.) Every scholar, unless for any reason specially allowed by the Chancellor, shall, as a condition of holding his scholarship, be required, not later than the end of his second year after matriculation, to have passed in at least three subjects of the examination for a degree prescribed in that behalf by the Senate and approved by the Governor-General.”

Section 17 of Amendment Act,
1914, amended.

4. Section seventeen of the New Zealand University Amendment Act, 1914, is hereby amended by omitting from paragraph (f) the reference to paragraphs (g), (h), (i), and (j) of section thirteen of that Act, and substituting a reference to paragraphs (g), (h), (i), (j), and (k) of that section.

Section 27 of Amendment Act,
1914, amended.

5. Subsection two of section twenty-seven of the New Zealand University Amendment Act, 1914, is hereby repealed as from the first day of April, nineteen hundred and twenty-four, and the following subsection substituted therefor:—

“(2.) There shall be payable to the holder of a University bursary such amount (not exceeding twenty pounds in any year) as may be approved by the Minister of Education in respect of the tuition fees payable by such holder at the affiliated institution to which he for the time being belongs in connection with any course of study pursued by him with the approval of the Chancellor:

“Provided that, except in special cases approved by the Minister, not more than one year’s fees shall be payable with respect to any subject at the same grade.”

“Bequest” defined for purposes of section 33 of Amendment Act,
1914.

Refer: 1926 Inset

6. For the purposes of section thirty-three of the New Zealand University Amendment Act, 1914, the term “bequest” means and includes any property, whether real or personal, derived from the estate of a deceased person, whether or not any discretionary powers as to the disposal of that property are vested in the personal representatives of the deceased.