1927, No. 22.—Local and Personal.

AN ACT to enable the Palmerston North Borough Council to erect a Building for a Library, and to include therein Shops and Offices. Title.
[5th December, 1927.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Palmerston North Library Empowering Act, 1927. Short Title.

2. The Palmerston North Borough Council (hereinafter called the Council) is hereby empowered and authorized—

- (a) To erect, construct, and maintain upon Section 671, Palmerston North (being all the land included in certificate of title, Volume 313, folio 148, Wellington Registry), a building or buildings to be used as a library and also containing such shops and offices as the Council shall think fit:
- (b) To utilize the said shops and offices or any of them for such purposes as the Council shall from time to time think fit:
- (c) To let or lease in the manner prescribed by the Municipal Corporations Act, 1920, the said shops and offices or any of them:
- (d) To raise a special loan under the Local Bodies' Loans Act, 1926, for such an amount as the Council shall think fit, and to expend the money so raised in the erection and construction of such building or buildings.

Council may erect building for library purposes, also shops and offices, and raise special loan.
