1928, No. 54.

Title.

AN ACT to amend the New Zealand University Act, 1908.

[9th October, 1928.]

BE IT ENACTED by the General Assembly of New Zealand in Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited as the New Zealand University Amendment Act, 1928, and shall be read together with and deemed part of the New Zealand University Act, 1908 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act).

Maximum subsidy payable on voluntary contributions to University or to constituent colleges.

2. (1) The maximum subsidy payable pursuant to section twenty-one of the New Zealand University Amendment Act, 1926, on any voluntary contribution received by the Council of the University or by the Council of any constituent college shall be twenty-five thousand pounds.

(2) The provisions of this section shall apply to voluntary contributions, whether received before or after the commencement of this Act, but nothing herein shall require the refund of any portion of a subsidy already paid.

3. No new Chair in a constituent college or in the Massey Agricultural College or in the Canterbury Agricultural College shall be established by the governing body thereof without the prior consent of the Council of the University and of the Minister :

Consent required to establishment of new Chair.

Provided that the consent of the Minister will not be necessary where no part of the cost of the salary or salaries or equipment connected with the new Chair has to be provided from Government funds.

AMD: S. 1929 No.

4. (1) There shall be payable to the Council of the University in each year for the general purposes of the University such sum as is appropriated therefor by Parliament.

Grant to University for general purposes.

(2) This section is in substitution for section thirty of the principal Act, and that section and section eight of the New Zealand University Amendment Act, 1914, and section two of the New Zealand University Amendment Act, 1919, are hereby repealed accordingly.

Repeals.

5. (1) Section thirteen of the New Zealand University Amendment Act, 1914, is hereby amended by omitting from paragraph (e), as set out in section three of the New Zealand University Amendment Act, 1923, the words "twenty pounds," and substituting the words "twenty-five pounds."

Increase in value of University National Scholarships.

(2) Section fifteen of the New Zealand University Amendment Act, 1914, is hereby amended by omitting from subsection one the words "thirty pounds," and substituting the words "thirty-five pounds."

6. Section twenty-seven of the New Zealand University Amendment Act, 1914, is hereby amended by omitting all words after the words "all persons of either sex who," and substituting the words "have been resident in New Zealand for the three years immediately preceding the date of the award thereof."

Section 27 of Amendment Act, 1914 (as to bursaries), amended.

7. (1) The Minister of Finance shall in each year, without further appropriation than this section, pay out of the Ordinary Revenue Account of the Consolidated Fund to the four constituent colleges of the University the sums named below :—

Grants to constituent colleges of University.

- (a) To the Auckland University College, in addition to the sum of four thousand pounds payable pursuant to the Auckland University College Act, 1882, the sum of nine thousand seven hundred and fifty pounds, of which the sum of one thousand two hundred and fifty pounds shall be applied for the purposes of the School of Architecture of the College :
- (b) To the Victoria University College, in addition to the sum of four thousand pounds payable pursuant to the Victoria College Act, 1905, the sum of seven thousand seven hundred and fifty pounds :
- (c) To the Canterbury College the sum of six thousand pounds, of which the sum of four thousand five hundred pounds shall be applied for the purposes of the School of Engineering of the College :
- (d) To the University of Otago the sum of fifteen thousand three hundred and fifty pounds, of which the sum of six thousand pounds shall be applied for the purposes of the Medical School of the University, the sum of one thousand five hundred pounds for the purposes of the Dental School, the sum of three thousand pounds for the purposes of the Home Science School, and the sum of three hundred and fifty pounds for the purposes of the Mining School.

Repeals.

(2) This section is in substitution for section thirty-one of the New Zealand University Amendment Act, 1914, and that section and section three of the New Zealand University Amendment Act, 1919, and section forty-three of the Finance Act, 1920, are hereby repealed accordingly.

(3) This section shall be deemed to have come into force on the first day of April, nineteen hundred and twenty-eight.

Definition of "Professor of the University" extended.

8. The definition of the expression "Professor of the University," in section two of the New Zealand University Amendment Act, 1926, is hereby amended by inserting, after the words "on the staff of a constituent college," where they first occur, the words "or of the Canterbury Agricultural College."

Section 4 of Amendment Act, 1926 (as to constitution of Council), amended.

9. Subsection four of section four of the New Zealand University Amendment Act, 1926, is hereby amended as follows:—

(a) By inserting, at the beginning of the subsection, the words "Except in the case of the Vice-Chancellor":

(b) By inserting, after the words "Council of any constituent college," the words "or the Board of Governors of the Canterbury Agricultural College."

Pro-Chancellor of University to be appointed.

10. (1) Section six of the New Zealand University Amendment Act, 1926, is hereby amended as follows:—

(a) By inserting, after subsection one, the following subsection:—

"(1A) The Council shall appoint one of its members to be the Pro-Chancellor of the University."

(b) By repealing subsection two, and substituting the following:—

"(2) The Council may in its discretion appoint a Vice-Chancellor of the University, who shall hold office for such period and receive such salary as the Council determines."

(c) By omitting from subsection three the word "Principal," and substituting the word "Vice-Chancellor."

(2) Section twenty-eight of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting from subsection three the word "Vice-Chancellor," and substituting the word "Pro-Chancellor."

(3) The New Zealand University Amendment Act, 1926, is hereby consequentially amended as set out in the Schedule hereto.
