(3) Except as hereinafter provided, the capital value and the unimproved value of the several properties in the borough and the value of the improvements thereon shall for the purposes of the special valuation roll be respectively the values appearing in the ordinary valuation roll on the thirty-first day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-one.

(4) If any separate property appearing on the special valuation roll did not appear on the ordinary valuation roll on the thirty-first day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-one, or if the nature of the improvements on any property has changed since that date, the capital value, the unimproved value, and the value of improvements shall, for the purposes of the special valuation roll, be assessed by the Valuer-General in relation to the values on that date of similar properties in the borough.

5. (1) The Valuer-General shall give notice to the Commissioner of the valuations as set forth in the special valuation roll, and shall also give notice to each owner whose name appears on that roll of the valuations in such roll relating to the property of that owner.

(2) The notice shall prescribe a time within which objections may be made to such valuations.

(3) Objections may be made to any such valuations by the Valuer-General, the Commissioner, or any owner whose name appears on the special valuation roll.

(1) The instalments of interest and sinking fund on any existing loan payable during the period commencing on the sixteenth day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-five, and ending on the fifteenth day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-eight, shall be reduced by one-third of the amount of the instalments that would otherwise have been payable if section fourteen of the principal Act had not been passed.

(2) Where a special rate is levied for the purpose of providing for the payment of interest and sinking fund on any existing loan, the Commissioner or the Council, as the case may be, shall in each financial year levy so much of such special rate as, together with such other funds as are available for the purpose, will, in the opinion of the Commissioner or the Council, as the case may be, produce a sum sufficient to pay in respect of that loan the amount of interest and sinking fund prescribed by the last preceding subsection.

Interest and sinking fund to be reduced by one-third for period of three years.

(3) The instalments of interest paid to debenture-holders in accordance with this section for the period commencing on the sixteenth day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-five, and ending on the fifteenth day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-eight, shall be deemed to be received in full satisfaction of those instalments.

20. Where the proceeds of any special rate levied by the Commissioner during the period of the three financial years ending on the thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and thirty-five, for the purpose of paying the instalments of interest and sinking fund on any existing loan are collected after that date, such proceeds shall be applied towards the payment of the instalments of interest and sinking fund on the loan in respect of which such special rate was levied falling due after the fifteenth day of July, nineteen hundred and thirty-five. Proceeds of rates collected after 31st March, 1935, to pay instalments falling due after 15th July, 1935.

21. (1) Section two of the principal Act is hereby amended by omitting the words "sixteenth day of July" in the definition of the term "interest year", and substituting the words "first day of April". Dates of "interest year" altered.

23. If any person demolishes, or removes, or causes or permits to be demolished or removed, any building, wall, fence, or other fixture contrary to the provisions of the last preceding section, the property in all the materials contained in and comprising such building, wall, fence, or other fixture shall thereupon vest in the Corporation, and the Commissioner may take all such steps as are necessary for the purpose of recovering all such materials that have been removed from the land affected.

Commissioner may acquire property in satisfaction of rates.

24. (1) The Commissioner may on behalf of the Corporation accept any rateable property in complete or partial satisfaction of any rates due to the Council, and for that purpose may pay an amount for purchase-money in addition to the amount owing for rates, notwithstanding that such property may not be necessary or convenient for the purposes of or in connection with any public work or undertaking of the Council, or for carrying out any of the purposes of any Act.

(2) The powers conferred on the Commissioner by the last preceding subsection shall be exercised by him only if he is of opinion that he would not be able to collect the rates owing in respect of the property without causing to be taken the steps prescribed by section seventy-nine of the Rating Act, 1925, or any other enactment providing for the sale, lease, or other disposition of property in respect of which rates are in arrear.

(3) Nothing in this Act or in any other Act or in any rule of law shall be deemed to invalidate the purchase or other acquisition by the Commissioner before the passing of this Act of any property in complete or partial satisfaction of any rates due to the Council.

25. (1) Where any property is acquired by the Commissioner under the provisions of the last preceding section or of section one hundred and thirteen of the Rating Act, 1925, and rates are due or likely to become due to any other local authority in respect of that property, the Commissioner may enter into an agreement with that local authority relating to—

- (d) Such other matters as may be necessary or desirable for the more effectual carrying out of the intention of any such agreement.

(2) Nothing shall be deemed to invalidate any such agreement entered into by the Commissioner with any local authority before the passing of this Act.

(3) Any such agreement shall be binding on the parties thereto according to the tenor thereof, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Act or rule of law.
